WORKSHOP INVITATIONS ADVICE A SPECIAL NEWSLETTER

As the workshop comes closer, here we have some quick key notes to get you through the attending process....

INVITATIONS

- In the near future potential attendees will receive formal invitations from Dr Fausto Sarmiento
- An expression of interest in attending the workshop needs to be returned before the deadline on the invitation
- If you haven't received an invitation in the next few weeks and you are interested in contributing, please get in touch with Dr Sarmiento to fsarmien@uga.edu.

PLACES AVAILABLE

- Over 60 invitations will be sent out for the 45 places available
- If expressions of interest are more than the places available, the Workshop executive will determine the final attendees based on the needs of the Connectivity Conservation book

THE WORKSHOP

- For the workshop, Fausto Sarmiento, and the Quito organising team have organised a fantastic program of mixed work on the book and field trips to natural areas surrounding our venue (which is located on the flank of a volcano).
- It will be a dynamic and fantastic experience and a stimulating follow-up to the preparation of the Case Studies. The book produced from the workshop will be an important contribution to the management of large scale Connectivity Conservation corridors. All participants will be recognised in the book for their contribution.
- Details of the venue, program and costs will be provided in the invitation...to be released shortly! Don't miss this workshop, it will be a good one!
